

The Secrets Inside

Danville Historical Society's GUIDED WALKING TOUR

Learn little-known facts about the historic buildings and their former residents on or near Millionaires' Row. An easy 60-90 minute brisk walk takes you into the heart of Danville, Virginia's Historic District where you'll marvel at the beautiful Victorian mansions and churches. Your guide will tell stories about the buildings... and the secrets within their walls.

The tour begins on the back steps of the Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History, 975 Main Street.

Cost is $6 for adults; free for DHS members and children under 12 with a paying adult.

Reservations are required 24 hours in advance. Tours are offered at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. daily. There are no tours on major holidays. Phone 434.770.1974. Leave name, number in party, and phone number including area code.

OPTIONAL ADD-ON:

#1 Visit inside the restored 1885 Dibrell House and enjoy tea and gourmet scones served on antique china. Minimum of 4 persons; maximum of 16; available following the 1:30 p.m. tour only; $6 per person. www.thetwoorgesinn.com

#2 Take a free guided tour of the Langhorne House, which is open on Saturdays from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Contributions are accepted.

#3 Travel back to the days of the Civil War when the Sutherlin Mansion served as the Last Capital of the Confederacy. Guided tour includes video; $5 for adults; $4 for seniors and students. Tour begins at 3 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. www.danvillemuseum.org.
